AUTUMN BULLETIN

FOR YOUR FALL PLANTING — VISIT BARNES

When dew lies heavily on a cool surface these early mornings; when golden-rod and asters color quiet road sides; when maple and sumac show a hint of brilliance to come then, even though days are warm, we are reminded to make our plans for coming fall. This is the time when conditions are usually excellent for moving balled and burlapped, potted or container grown plants and for making a new lawn or renovating an old one.

WHEN WILL THEY BE READY?

Tulips, Narcissus and many more spring flowering bulb varieties from Holland will be here later in September. Deciduous (leaf losing) trees and shrubs will be ready after there have been some heavy frosts (usually mid-October for shrubs and late October for larger trees). Lily bulbs arrive in mid or late October.

There will be no attempt to list, in this bulletin, all the plants we have for sale this fall but we will send upon request the more completely detailed Spring 1963 Garden Guide.

EVERGREENS TO PLANT IN EARLY FALL

Autumn usually presents weather conditions ideal for planting. September and October allow time for roots to develop before freezing weather in this region. Hundreds of young trees, freshly dug from our fields or container grown, are inviting your inspection. CYPRESS (Chamaecyparis), JUNIPER (low spreaders and slender upright types with others in between), MUGHO PINE, WHITE PINE, YEW (Taxus), ARBORVITAE (Thuja) and HEMLOCK are among those here.

JUNIOR ARISTOCRATS

COMPACT PFITZER JUNIPER.	$2.00 each

HICKS YEW. 10-12 in., $1.75 each; $16.00 for 10.

TULIPS

Although brown or pale and hard now, these imported plants are among the earliest to display their many beautiful colors when spring arrives. Our list includes old favorites and a number of newer kinds. In our salesroom, they will be displayed with full color pictures to make your selection easy. All are packaged in transparent bags so that you may see the quality you buy. All are labeled. These features lessen the possibility of mixing which is always present when bulbs are displayed in open bins. When ordering by mail always indicate a second choice, for specific kinds are often sold out early. Planting directions come with orders.

MISCELLANEOUS PERENNIAL PLANTS

BLEEDING HEART (Dicentra). Pink and white, heart shaped flowers in May. 3-5 eye divisions. $1.25 each
FRITILLARIA IMPERIALIS, CROWN UPON CROWN. An unusual and handsome member of the Lily family which blooms in April. Large clusters of double red flowers droop from the tops of 2-3 foot stalks. Plant in early fall in rich sandy loam and mulch heavily in winter. $2.50 each DAYLILY (Hemerocallis). New varieties give additional colors to these sturdy, hardy, free blooming perennials. From 60¢ to $1.25 each. Named varieties pictured in our salesroom.

IRIS (Tall Bearded). New creations in flowering loveliness have kept the hardiness and sturdiness of the old fashioned parents. Named varieties pictured in our salesroom. From 79¢ to $1.25 each

HARDY AMARYLLIS (Lycoris squamigera). The leaves appear in early spring, then disappear. These are followed by two foot stalks bearing rose colored lily-like flowers in August. Give them a bit of shade and the flowers last longer. 3 for $1.25

PEONY. Large double flowers. Red, pink or white. 3 to 5 eye divisions. 98¢ each

ORIENTAL POPPY. Pink, red or white, each with black at center. 79¢ each

MISCELLANEOUS BULBS

ALLIUM. Just becoming appreciated, these onion relatives extend the flowering season. Excellent for the rockery or edging the bulb bed or perennial borders.

MOLY. Bright yellow. 1 foot tall. May. 10 for 65¢

OSTROWSKIANUM. Umbels of carmine pink flowers on 6 inch stems. June. 10 for 65¢

SPAEROCEPHALUM. Purple-red. July Tall. 10 for 65¢

ANEMONE BLANDA. Starry inch and a half flowers of this early spring gem appear on 4-6 inch stems above ferny foliage. Blue, pink mixed. 10 for 90¢
CAMASSIA CUSICKI (Bear Grass). Blue. May-June. Up to 3 feet. Give a warm spot. Protect in winter. 10 for 90¢
CHINODOXA. White covered blue star flowers in earliest spring. 20 for $1.25
ERANTHIS (Winter Aconite). Golden yellow. Early. 10 for 90¢
SNOWDROPS (Galanthus elwesii). Nodding white flowers touched with green in early spring. 9-12 inches high. 10 for 75¢

IRIS DANFORDIAE. A yellow, fragrant gem for well drained soil. Flowers early. 2-4 inches high. 10 for 90¢
IRIS RETICULATA. Deepest violet with orange and white markings make its flowers early spring gems. Use sand and gravel under these two rock garden Irises if your soil is heavy. 10 for 90¢

BLUE GRAPE HYACINTH (Muscari). 6-10 inch clusters of small grape-shaped blue flowers are edged with white. 10 for $1.00
WHITE GRAPE HYACINTH (Muscari). Similar to the foregoing kind but flowers are pure white. 10 for 75¢
FEATHER HYACINTH (Muscari plumosum). Amethyst plumes in May. 10 for $1.00

STAR OF BETHLEHEM (Ornithogalum). White flowers, marked green outside, in May on 6 inch stems. 10 for 65¢
OXALIS ADENOPHYLLA. Lilac-pink. 6-12 inches high. Needs mulching to prevent winter heaving as they are planted only 2-4 inches deep. This is true of most of the smaller bulbs. 10 for 75¢

SCILLA SIBERICA (Blue Squill). Bits of bright blue sky brought to earth to brighten your early spring garden. 6 inches. 10 for 75¢

TRITELEIA UNIFLORA (Spring Star Flower). White, shaded blue. Makes a good 6 inch undercover in a sheltered corner. Blooms in May. 20 for $1.25

LILIES

MADONNA LILY, CHATEAU DE NARCE STRAIN. Fragrant white flowers along 3-4 foot stalks bloom in June. As this variety makes a crown of leaves in the fall, it should be planted in September. 59¢ each; 3 for $1.50

JAN DE GRAAFF HYBRID LILIES. Exciting new hardy lilies in a wide assortment of colors and forms. All are named varieties; all are pictured in our salesroom and will be ready by mid or late October. In bags of 3 bulbs of one variety at $1.95 per bag and up.
